16 Sailors to Graduate CNET's Networking Administrator Pilot Course

PENSACOLA, Fla. -- The Chief of Naval Education and Training (CNET) vision to train more Sailors, faster, and at less cost comes into focus in a graduation ceremony Thursday, July 12 at 2 p.m. onboard the Naval Station Norfolk, Va., in the Fleet Training Center Norfolk, Auditorium, Building N30.

Sixteen Sailors graduate from the Cisco Networking Academy Program (CNAP), many of them earning the Cisco Certified Network Associate qualification, a highly desirable qualification in the civilian networking industry and the fleet as well.

Story by Navy Journalist 2nd Class Eileen M. N. Kelly and Michele C. Harrison, Chief of Naval Education and Training Force Public Affairs Staff

Media desiring to attend the graduation ceremony must contact the Navy Region Mid-Atlantic Public Affairs Office at (757) 322-2853.
